A Violent Negro Woman Maniac Creates Trouble in Jail-Lieut. Holt Makes Satisfactory Explanation of His Remarks,

(Epecial to The Times-Dispatch.)

NORFOLK, VA., July 10.—E. M. Martin, the ancient and silent burglar confessed to house-breaking on two charges in the Corporation Court this morning. Ile was sentenced by Judge Allen R. Hanckel to one year in the penitentiary on each charge. These were to breaking into the house of the nev. Dr. W. A. Barr and into the house of A. M. White. He took several articles from both houses, which were afterward found where he had pawned them. The real name of the decrepit and gray-haired man, whose attenuated form is bent with years, is Robert W. Hammond. He is from Dimwiddle county, and his family is respectable and distinguished. He, however, has a criminal record. He has served two terms in the penitentiary at Richmond, and is charged in Baltimore and in other cities with burglary. Chief Pumphrey, of Baltimore, is especially anxious to have him sent there for trial. He was condemned to five years in the penitentiary for having burglar's tools in his possession, and now he has two more years by confession. He was silent when caught, and said that nothing could be proved against him.

LIEUTEMANT HOLT EXPLAINS.

Lieutenant Holt, of Hampton, has made an explanation here by which, he may be exonerated. He was quoted in an interview, as saying that the militia would be disbanded after the strike in Richmond, the second i ntwelve months the soldiers had been sent to quell. Is over.

He and the reporter, who took the interview, have explained to Colonel Higgins here the commander of the Seventy-first Regiment, that the interview misrepresents his statements.

Colonel Higgins says the explanation is satisfactory.

TWO FIREMEN INJURED.

A second disastrous fire occurred on Roanoke Street early this morning, when two firemen were injured and considerable property destroyed. The fire was discovered about 1:30 o'clock in the top floor of the building occupied by Messrs T.C. White & Company, wholesale fruit and candy dealers. This adjoins the Jesse Jones building which was completely destroyed yesterday atternoon. The fire had quite a start when discovered, and before it was got under control the entire building and stock were destroyed, as well as considerable damage done to the neighboring buildings and their contents.

A VIOLENT MANIAC.

Ella Jereman, a negro woman, was held by Police Justice Taylor to-day for the action of a lunacy commission. The woman is one of the most violent maniacs with whom the police have had to deal for some time. When arrested last night, sile was placed in a pudded cell. This morning she managed to get her head in the water and flooded the cell. In the court room she was very violent, and frequently went into what seemed to be fainting spells. Her mother, on whose request she was arrested, said that she was dangerous, and that she had been going around claiming to be "a messenger of God."

DR. THACKER'S HOLIDAY.

Rev. Dr. J. Ernest Thacker, pastor of the Second Presbyterlan Church, left last night for Newport News, whence he sailed this morning on the steamship Powhatan for London. His congregation gave him a ticket to London and return and a well-filled purse. He will be away for two months and goes for a rest. He will spend most of the time in England and Scotland, and will make a trip to the continent and to Paris. His pulpit here will be supplied during his absence by different Presbyterlan ministers, and for the first few Sundays Rev. Dr. Griffin Bull, of Atlanta, Ga., who, with his wife and children, are summerting on a house boat off Willoughby Spit. Dr. Bull is a member of the Second Presbyterian Church here, having been raised in Norfolk.

Virginia Passenger and Power Company Preparing to Build a Great Dam-Liquor Dealers Plead Guilty of Selling to Minors.

(Special to The Times Dispatch.)

PETERSBURG, VA., July 16.—The fast schedule has been established again by the Ferndale Park line, and all the cars in the city are now running as they were before the street car men went out. Two more of the strikers went to work this morning. Herbert Wood and J. C. Maione. There exists now ten vacancies, including relief men and there are seven men on the cars being trained. The company is paying the men 13 conts per hour for twelve hours' work, or $1.56 per day.

The lodal strikers did not receive their money Tuesday, but expected to receive it to-day. No money had come for them, however, up to 3 o'clock this afternoon.

A GREAT DAM.

The Virginia Passenger and Power Company continues to buy land west of the city on both sides of the river, in order that no land other than their own will be flooded when the proposed new dam across the river is constructed. The proposed dam will have a height of seventy-five feet, and will be one of the greatest structures of the kind in the South. There was some fear expressed in the event such a dam were to break, but the probability is that the city would be in little danger from such a contingency. If a break were to occur the water would certainly follow the natural course of the river, and for this reason could do little danger from such a contingency. If a break were to scuch the water would certainly follow the natural course of the river, and for this reason could do little danger several miles west of Ferndale Park, and will cost, with other improvements, several hundred thousand dollars.

SOCIALIST LABOR CANDIDATE.

There is some talk of a socialist labor candidate for the Legislature. There are very few socialists in the city, but their number is constantly increasing, and while there is no probability of the election of a socialist at present, the indications are that the party, which is well organized in the North and East, will eventually attract the laboring vote in this section.

about twenty-eight miles north of this place, almost on the border of the county.

The United States, Steel Company, which is said to be the largest truet in the world, with its vast capital of one billion four hundred and twenty million, has taken hold of twenty thousand acres of coal lands at that point, and have within a period of fourteen months almost built a city in the wilderness.

They have constructed over one thousand houses within that period, all of superior quality, and have already built more coke ovens than is found in the entire soft coal field of this section. It is said the development is to be on an immense scale, and the impression made upon one visiting there is illustrative by the remark of a countryman coming back from that point, when interrogated in reference to the development, who said, "all the world is there!"

Ex-Senator St. Clair, who is a man of affairs himself, just returned from Sand Lick, and he says that no one who has not been there can form any conception of the magnitude of the work done and undertaken by the trust.

The general prosperity of this whole section, partly by reason of the developments on the northern border, is wonderful, and the volome of money is such that county bonds for road purposes were taken up at less than four per cent.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

NORFOLK, VA., July 10.—John Pickins was on trial in the Corporation Court to-day for murder. The charge is that he killed the old negro woman, Maggle Grant. The story of the case is that he was out early on the morning of May 25th, probably under the influence of drink, and passed clong Smith Street.
He stopped in front of Maggle Grant's,
house, asked why she did not meet him;
and when she answered that she did not know him, he entered and struck her with a lamp. She was taken to the hospital, where she dieß on June 4th. The plea of the defense is that the woman died from natural causes; that she was about to die anyhow and did not die in consequence of the blows from the defendant.

The case is interesting, because the de-

It was at first thought Mr. Saunders would lose the sight of one if not both of his eyes, but later his physician expresses strong hopes that with careful treatment he will be able to save them. Mr. Saunders has suffered excrudating pain and was unable to sleep until yesterday. He is one of the best known local politicians in the city, and his friends were making constant inquiry concerning his condition yesterday.

It will likely be some time before Mr. Saunders can look after his business, as his physician will not permit him to use his eyes until they are well.

Every boy will be interested in the talk in The Sunday Times Dispatch about how to develop his strength.

CRISMOND

Sensational Leaving of Clerk of Spotsylvania Courts.

He is, However, a Man of Means, and Could Easily Make Good Any Delinguency-Left a Will and Instructions to His Wife.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

FREDERICKSEURG, VA., July 10.—
Rev. J. P. H. Crismond, one of the most prominent citizens of Spotsylvania county, and for twenty-two years past the clerk of courts of that county, has disappeared under mysterious circumstances, and there are many rumors as to the cause. Those in Spotsylvania, who know of the circumstances, are very reticent, and but little information could be had from them. It is known, however, that Mr. Crismond came to this city and left here Tuesday night for the North. He made a will on Monday, leaving his property to his wife. He has two children, a son and daughter, both of whom are married. He left his horse and buggy at a livery stable here, and notified his wife to send for it, which was done. It is stated that in a note he informed his wife that he had gone away for good, and that she would not see him again.

ACCOUNTS SHORT.

It is alleged that the accounts of Clerk Crismond have for sometime been in a confused state, and that he is short in the delinquent tax returns. It is believed, however, that he is worth much more than any shortage in his accounts, and can easily straighten out any difference in money matters. His friends are of the opinion that he is suffering from temporary abetration of mind.

Commonwealth's Attorney Lee J. Graves, of Spotsylvania county, is making every effort to apprehend Mr. Crismond, and all of his accounts are being investigated. Mr. Crismond has been a gentleman of high standing and is an ordained minister, owns considerable real estate and was supposed to be well ahead in finances. It is believed that if he will return that his affairs will soon be put in satisfactory shape. It is not thought by his friends that he has committed any criminal act, but all of his affairs will now be looked into and developments are awaited with intense interest.

Farewell, father, lay me gently In my little narrow hed. Think of God, who gave and took me, Now I slumber with the dead.

Farewell, mother, I must leave you, For the dark and silent tomb, Close my eyes in silent slumber, Fuded in my early bloom.

We miss thee from our home, dear baby.
We miss thee from thy place.
Our home is dark without thee.
We miss the sunshine of thy face.
